

Seven local artists will open their studios to the public for the Eureka Springs Studio Tour on November 4, 5, and 6. The free, self-guided tour is a unique way to spend two full days meeting some of Eureka's finest artisans.

The tour is in the artists' working studios, where they will serve refreshments and share their process and techniques with you in full demonstration.

On the tour, you'll meet Mark Hughes, Jim Nelson, Steve Beacham, Barbara Kennedy, Doug Powell, Mary Springer, and Diana Harvey. You'll see how they create paintings, pottery, clothing, fiber art, glass work, kayaks, mosaics, metal work, photography, musical instruments, carvings, jewelry and much, much more!

Because the studios are located throughout Eureka Springs, it is truly an adventure into the art, culture and beauty of Eureka Springs.

Signs along the route direct visitors to the studios, which will be open 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

A downloadable map as well as information on the artists and studios are available online at www.eurekaspringsstudiotour.org.
